

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 4, 2019

Ms. Erin D. Thorn
Assistant District Attorney
Hidalgo County
Criminal District Attorney's Office
100 East Cano Street
Edinburg, Texas 78539

OR2019-03188

Dear Ms. Thorn:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 749057.

The Hidalgo County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information presented to the grand jury in a specified case. You argue the submitted information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to the Act. In the alternative, you claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Initially, we address your argument that the submitted information is not subject to the provisions of the Act because it was presented to a grand jury. The Act applies only to information that is "written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business . . . by a governmental body[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.002(a)(1). The judiciary is expressly excluded from the requirements of the Act. Id. § 552.003(1)(B). This office has determined for purposes of the Act, a grand jury is a part of the judiciary and therefore not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decision No. 411 (1984). Further, records kept by a governmental body that is acting as an agent for a grand jury are considered records in the constructive possession of the grand jury, and are also not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decisions Nos. 513 (1988), 411, 398 (1983). Thus, to the extent the district attorney’s office holds the information at issue solely as an agent of the grand jury, such information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to disclosure under the Act and the district attorney’s office is not required to release that information in response to the instant request. To the extent the district attorney’s office holds the information at issue in its own capacity and not solely as an agent of the grand jury, we will address the district attorney’s office’s argument against its disclosure.

¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses other statutes, such as article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides “[t]he proceedings of the grand jury shall be secret.” Crim. Proc. Code art. 20.02(a). Article 20.02, however, does not define “proceedings” for purposes of subsection (a). The Fourth Court of Appeals in In re Reed addressed the issue of what constitutes “proceedings” for purposes of article 20.02(a) and stated the term “proceedings” could “reasonably be understood as encompassing matters that take place before the grand jury, such as witness testimony and deliberations.” See In re Reed, 227 S.W.3d 273, 276 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2007, orig. proceeding).

Subsequent to the ruling in Reed, the 80th Legislature, modeling federal law, added subsection (h) to article 20.02. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 20.02; FED. R. CRIM. P. 6(e)(6) (“Records, orders, and subpoenas relating to grand-jury proceedings must be kept under seal to the extent and as long as necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of a matter occurring before a grand jury.”). Article 20.02(h) states “[a] subpoena or summons relating to a grand jury proceeding or investigation must be kept secret to the extent and for as long as necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of a matter before the grand jury.” Crim. Proc. Code art. 20.02(h). This provision, however, does not define or explain what factors to consider in making such a determination, and even if we considered article 20.02 to be a confidentiality provision, information withheld under this statute would be secret only “for as long as necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of a matter before the grand jury.” Id.

You claim the submitted information contains information submitted before a grand jury that must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 20.02 of the Criminal Code of Procedure. However, you state the grand jury returned a no bill of indictment for the underlying incident at issue, and you failed to submit any arguments explaining how the matter upon which the information at issue was based is still

“before the grand jury” to warrant keeping it secret. Therefore, upon review of article 20.02 and related case law, it is not apparent, and you failed to otherwise explain, how this provision makes the information at issue confidential. See Open Records Decision No. 478 (1987) (as general rule, statutory confidentiality requires express language making information confidential). Consequently, the district attorney’s office may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 20.02 of the Criminal Code of Procedure.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Open Records Decision No. 434 (1986). You state the submitted information pertains to a criminal investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on this representation, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the district attorney’s office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

In summary, to the extent the district attorney’s office holds the information at issue solely as an agent of the grand jury, such information consists of records of the judiciary that are not subject to disclosure under the Act and the district attorney’s office is not required to release that information in response to the instant request. To the extent the district attorney’s office holds the information at issue in its own capacity and not solely as an agent of the grand jury, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the district attorney’s office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/>
