Dear Ms. Peck:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 749447.

The Texas Department of Savings and Mortgage Lending (the "department") received a request for all records pertaining to two specified complaint numbers. You state the department will release the following information to the requestor: the original complaint, the requestor's response to the complaint, and e-mail correspondences between the department and the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 156.301 of the Finance Code. Chapter 156 of the Finance Code is also known as the Mortgage Broker License Act. See Fin. Code § 156.001. Section 156.301 provides, in relevant part:

- (a) The [savings and loan] commissioner may conduct inspections of a person licensed under this chapter or a residential mortgage loan originator who is licensed under Chapter 157 and sponsored by and conducting business for a licensed or registered mortgage loan company under this chapter as the commissioner determines necessary to determine whether the person or the residential mortgage loan originator is complying with this chapter and applicable rules. The inspections may include inspection of the books, records, documents, operations, and facilities of the person or the residential mortgage loan originator and access to any documents required under rules adopted under this chapter. The commissioner may share evidence of criminal activity gathered during an inspection or investigation with any state or federal law enforcement agency.

(b) On the signed written complaint of a person, the commissioner shall investigate the actions and records of a person licensed under this chapter or a residential mortgage loan originator who is licensed under Chapter 157 and sponsored by and conducting business for a licensed or registered residential mortgage loan company under this chapter if the complaint, or the complaint and documentary or other evidence presented in connection with the complaint, provides reasonable cause. The commissioner, before commencing an investigation, shall notify the residential mortgage loan company or the residential mortgage loan originator in writing of the complaint and that the commissioner intends to investigate the matter.

(c) For reasonable cause, the commissioner at any time may investigate a person licensed under this chapter or a residential mortgage loan originator who is licensed under Chapter 157 and sponsored by and conducting business for a licensed or registered residential mortgage loan company under this chapter to determine whether the person or the residential mortgage loan originator is complying with this chapter and applicable rules.

(f) Information obtained by the commissioner during an inspection or an investigation is confidential unless disclosure of the information is permitted or required by other law.

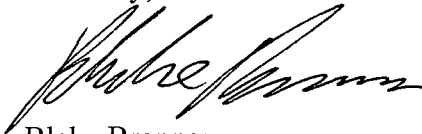

Id. § 156.301(a)-(c), (f). You state the submitted information pertains to pending investigations being conducted by the department pursuant to section 156.301 of the Finance Code. You assert the information at issue was obtained by the department in the course of the pending investigations. As noted above, you state the department will release the following information to the requestor: the complaint, its accompanying documentation, and e-mails between the department and the requestor. You assert the remaining submitted information is confidential under section 156.301(f). Upon review, we find the information at issue constitutes information “obtained by the commissioner during an inspection or an investigation[.]” Id. § 156.301(f).
