Dear Ms. Lewis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 750498 (ORU No. 18-11981).

The Houston Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to the use of specified information collection devices during a certain time period. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.107 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.107(2) of the Government Code provides information is excepted from disclosure if "a court by order has prohibited disclosure of the information." Gov't Code § 552.107(2). Article 18.20 of the Code of Criminal Procedure permits a court, on application by a prosecutor, to issue an order authorizing the interception of wire, oral, or electronic communications; the installation or use of a pen register, ESN reader, trap and trace device, mobile tracking device, or similar equipment; or the disclosure of a stored communication, information subject to an administrative subpoena, or information subject to access under article 18.21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 18.20, §§ 6, 9; see also id. § 1 (defining terms). Section 11 of article 18.20 states "[t]he ¹We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

judge shall seal each application made and order granted under this article.” Id. § 11. Article 18.21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure permits a court, on application by a prosecutor, to issue an order authorizing the installation and use of a pen register, ESN reader, trap and trace device, or similar equipment. See id. art. 18.21, § 2; see also id. § 1 (defining terms). Article 18.21 also permits a court to issue an order authorizing the disclosure of contents, records, or other information of a wire or electronic communication. See id. § 5. Section 2 of article 18.21 states the court “shall seal an application and order granted under this article.” Id. § 2(g). The submitted information consists of applications for court orders, supporting affidavits, and court orders granted under articles 18.20 and 18.21. You state, and the applications, affidavits, and orders reflect, these documents are filed under seal. As the documents at issue have been sealed by a court pursuant to articles 18.20 and 18.21, we conclude the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.107(2) of the Government Code.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
