

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

March 20, 2019

Mr. Jonathan Miles
Open Records Attorney
Texas Health and Human Services Commission
P.O. Box 13247
Austin, Texas 78711-3247

OR2019-07794

Dear Mr. Miles:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 755573 (Ref. No. OR-20181227-17261).

The Health and Human Services Commission (the "commission") received a request for specified policies and procedures and information pertaining to the commission's decision regarding a named individual. You state the commission will release the specified policies and procedures to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note some of the submitted information, which we have marked, is not responsive to the instant request because it was created after the date the commission received the present request for information. This ruling does not address the public availability of any information that is not responsive to the request and the commission is not required to release such information in response to this request.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't

¹As we are able to make this determination, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 12.003(a) of the Human Resources Code, which provides:

Except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the assistance programs of the commission or Department of Aging and Disability Services [(the “department”)], as applicable, it is an offense for a person to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of the names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving assistance if the information is directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the commission or department or acquired by employees of the commission or department in the performance of their official duties.

Hum. Res. Code § 12.003(a). The term “assistance” in section 12.003 includes “all forms of assistance and services for needy persons authorized by Subtitle C” of title 2 of the Human Resources Code. Id. § 11.001(1); see also id. ch. 31 et seq. (Assistance Programs).

In Open Records Decision No. 584 (1991), this office concluded that “[t]he inclusion of the words ‘or any information’ juxtaposed with the prohibition on disclosure of the names of [the commission’s] clients clearly expresses a legislative intent to encompass the broadest range of individual client information, and not merely the clients’ names and addresses.” Open Records Decision No. 584 at 3 (1991). Consequently, it is the specific information pertaining to individual clients, and not merely the clients’ identities, that is made confidential under section 12.003. See also 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(7) (state plan for medical assistance must provide safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants and recipients to purposes directly connected with administration of plan); 42 C.F.R. §§ 431.300 et seq.; Open Records Decision No. 166 (1977).

You assert the submitted responsive information relates to recipients of benefits authorized by Subtitle C of title 2 of the Human Resources Code. We understand the release of the information at issue in this instance would not be for purposes directly connected with the administration of an assistance program. Based on your representations and our review, we conclude the commission must withhold the submitted responsive information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/>
