

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

April 18, 2019

Ms. Dylbia L. Jefferies Vega
Attorney
Cameron County
1100 East Monroe Street
Brownsville, Texas 78520

OR2019-10410

Dear Ms. Vega:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 760179.

The County of Cameron (the "county") received three requests from different requestors for all records related to a specified advisory, including a specified list and all communications and correspondence with the Secretary of State's office concerning the advisory; communications between the county and registered voters concerning the advisory; and communications between county employees concerning the advisory. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. You also notified the Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") of the request and its right to submit arguments to this office. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (providing that interested party may submit written comments regarding why information should or should not be released). We have received comments from the OAG. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Id. § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why release of the requested information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), 301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). Section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information relating to a pending investigation or prosecution of criminal conduct. See Open Records Decision No. 474 at 4-5 (1987). Where a governmental body has custody of information that would otherwise qualify for exception under section 552.108 as information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to the pending case and a representation from the law enforcement agency that it wishes to have the information withheld.

The OAG states it objects to disclosure of the submitted information because it relates to an ongoing criminal investigation by the OAG's Election Fraud Section, and release of that information would interfere with the investigation of the case. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information, and the county may withhold the submitted information on behalf of the OAG.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
