Staff Attorney
Houston Police Department

OR2019-12050

Dear Ms. Lewis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID#765110 (ORU No. 19-01965).

The Houston Emergency Center (the "center") received a request for 911 recordings pertaining to a specified address. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we must address the center's obligations under section 552.301 of the Government Code, which prescribes the procedures a governmental body must follow in asking this office to decide whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301. Pursuant to section 552.301(b), a governmental body must ask for a decision from this office and state the exceptions that apply within ten business days of receiving the written request. See id. § 552.301(b). You state the center received the request for information on February 13, 2019. Accordingly, you were required to provide the information required by section 552.301(b) by February 28, 2019. However, the envelope in which you provided the information required by section 552.301(b) is postmarked March 7, 2019. See id. § 552.308(a)(1) (describing rules for calculating submission dates of documents sent via first class United States mail, common or contract carrier, or interagency mail). Consequently, we conclude you failed to comply with the procedural requirements mandated by section 552.301 of the Government Code.

A governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption the submitted information is public and must be released unless a governmental body demonstrates a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. §552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ) (governmental body must make compelling demonstration to overcome presumption of openness pursuant to statutory predecessor to section 552.302). The need of a governmental body, other than the one that failed to comply with section 552.301, to withhold information under section 552.108 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason sufficient to overcome the presumption of openness. See Open Records Decision No. 586 (1991). You state the Houston Police Department (the "department") objects to the release of the submitted information under section 552.108. Therefore, we will consider whether the center may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108 on behalf of the department.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law-enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime [.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). Section 552.108 may be invoked by the proper custodian of information relating to a pending investigation or prosecution of criminal conduct. See Open Records Decision No. 474 at 4-5 (1987). The center states the department objects to the release of the submitted information because release would interfere with an active criminal investigation. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14 Dist] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976)). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information. The center may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) on behalf of the department.
