

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 4, 2019

Mr. Darrell G-M Noga
Counsel for the City of Coppell
Cantey Hanger, LLP
1999 Bryan Street, Suite 3300
Dallas, Texas 75201-6822

OR2019-14735

Dear Mr. Noga:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 774572 (Ref. No. W004238-041619).

The Coppell Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident involving two named individuals. You state you will release some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. You contend the submitted information is confidential under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 724.018 of the Transportation Code, which provides, "[o]n the request of a person who has given a specimen at the request of a peace officer, full information concerning the analysis of the specimen shall be made available to the person or the person's attorney." Transp. Code § 724.018. We note statutory confidentiality under section 552.101 requires express language making information confidential or stating information shall not be released to the public. See Open Records Decision No. 478 at 2 (1987) (addressing statutory predecessor); see also Open Records Decision No. 658 at 4 (1998) (statutory confidentiality provision must be express, and confidentiality requirement will not be implied from statutory structure). No language in section 724.018 makes information encompassed by the statute confidential or prohibits the release of such information to the public. Thus, section 724.018 is not a statutory confidentiality provision. We, therefore, conclude the department may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 724.018.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. You assert the submitted information is protected by common-law privacy. Upon review, however, we find no portion of the submitted information is highly intimate or embarrassing and of no legitimate public concern, and the department may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code on the basis of common-law privacy. The department must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Meredith L. Coffman
Assistant Attorney General
