ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 17, 2019

Mr. Jason Day
City Attorney
City of Royse City
P.O. Box 638
Royse City, Texas 75189

OR2019-16367

Dear Mr. Day:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 770946 (ORR# RCCA19-04-0205).

The Royse City Police Department (the "department") received a request for records pertaining to a named individual. The department claims some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the department claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.008 of the Family Code, which provides, in part:

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records concerning a child and information concerning a child that are stored by electronic means or otherwise from which a record could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as adult records, accessible only under controls that are separate and distinct from the controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subsection (c) or Subchapter B, D, or E.

(d) Law enforcement records concerning a child may be inspected or copied by:

(1) a juvenile justice agency, as defined by Section 58.101;

(2) a criminal justice agency, as defined by Section 411.082, Government Code;

(3) the child; or

(4) the child's parent or guardian.

Fam. Code § 58.008(b), (d); see id. § 51.03(a) (defining “delinquent conduct” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code).¹ Section 58.008(b) is applicable to records of juvenile conduct that occurred before, on, or after September 1, 2017. The juvenile must have been at least 10 years old and less than 17 years of age when the conduct occurred. See Fam Code § 51.02(2) (defining “child” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code). The submitted information involves a juvenile offender, so as to fall within the scope of section 58.008(b). The department argues the requestor has a right of access to the information because the requestor is an authorized representative of the named individual, who is a suspect listed in the report. However, we note the named individual is not the juvenile offender. Thus, the requestor does not have a right of access to the information at issue pursuant to section 58.008(d) of the Family Code. See id. § 58.008(d). Accordingly, the department must generally withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.008(b) of the Family Code.

¹Although the department argues the information at issue is made confidential by section 58.007(c) of the Family Code, we note the 85th Legislature repealed this provision effective September 1, 2017. Act of May 28, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., ch. 746, § 21, 2017 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 3173, 3187.

However, we note the requestor is a recruiter for the United States Army (the "Army"), and the requestor states the named individual is a potential enlistee in the Army. The United States Department of Defense (the "DoD") is authorized to perform background investigations of persons seeking to enlist to determine the eligibility of applicants for acceptance into armed services. See 5 U.S.C. § 9101(b)(1)(A)(iii); see also id. § 9101(a)(6)(A) (DoD is a covered agency for purposes of section 9101). The Army has a right to the criminal history record information ("CHRI") of state and local criminal justice agencies when its investigation is conducted with the consent of the individual being investigated. See id. § 9101(b)(1), (c); see also 10 U.S.C. § 111(b)(6) (DoD includes Department of the Army). CHRI is defined as "information collected by criminal justice agencies on individuals consisting of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, indictments, informations, or other formal criminal charges, and any disposition arising therefrom, sentencing, correction supervision and release" but does not include "identification information such as fingerprint records to the extent that such information does not indicate involvement in the criminal justice system" or "records of a State or locality sealed pursuant to law from access by State and local criminal justice agencies of that State or locality." 5 U.S.C. § 9101(a)(2).

Federal law provides the Army's right of access to CHRI preempts state confidentiality provisions. Id. § 9101(b)(4) (section 9101 "shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of law of any State"). We conclude the Army's right of access under federal law preempts section 58.008 of the Family Code. See English v. General Elec. Co., 496 U.S. 72, 79 (1990) (state law preempted to extent it actually conflicts with federal law); see also La. Pub. Serv. Comm'n v. FCC, 476 U.S. 355, 369 (1986) (federal agency acting within scope of its congressionally delegated authority may preempt state regulation). However, federal law also provides the Army's right of access is contingent on receiving written consent from the individual under investigation for the release of such CHRI. See 5 U.S.C. § 9101(c), (b)(1)(A)(iii). In this instance, the individual at issue provided the Army with a signed authorization for the release of the information at issue. Accordingly, the department must release CHRI pertaining to the individual at issue and must withhold the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.008(b) of the Family Code.
