ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 24, 2019

Mr. Christian Rosas-Grillet
Assistant City Attorney
City of Laredo
P.O. Box 579
Laredo, Texas 78042-0579

OR2019-17101

Dear Mr. Rosas-Grillet:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 771708 (PIR No. W011948-032419).

The City of Laredo (the "city") received a request for a list of all city fire hydrants. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. As part of the Texas Homeland Security Act ("HSA"), sections 418.176 through 418.182 were added to chapter 418 of the Government Code. These provisions make certain information related to terrorism confidential. You assert the requested information is confidential under section 418.181 of the Government Code, which provides "[t]hose documents or portions of documents in the possession of a governmental entity are confidential if they identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of critical infrastructure to an act of terrorism." Id. § 418.181. The fact that information may relate to a governmental body's security concerns does not make the information per se confidential under the HSA. See Open Records Decision No. 649 at 3 (1996) (language of confidentiality provision controls scope of its protection). Furthermore, the mere recitation by a governmental body of a statute's key terms is not sufficient to demonstrate the applicability of the claimed provision. As with any exception to disclosure, a governmental body asserting one of the confidentiality provisions of the HSA must adequately explain how the responsive records fall within the scope of the claimed provision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must explain how claimed exception to disclosure applies).

¹We note the city failed to comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code; however, section 552.101 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason to withhold information sufficient to overcome the presumption of openness caused by a failure to comply with section 552.301. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301, .302. Accordingly, we will consider the city's argument under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

You explain the submitted information contains the location of each of the city's fire hydrants. You assert, and we agree, the city's fire hydrant system, which is part of the city's water system, is critical infrastructure. See generally id. § 421.001 (defining "critical infrastructure" to include "all public or private assets, systems, and functions vital to the security, governance, public health and safety, economy, or morale of the state or the nation"). You state the information you have indicated "could be used to identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of the city's water system to an act of terrorism." You further explain release of the information at issue "could inhibit the city's ability to protect the public safety and its infrastructure." Based on your arguments and our review of the information at issue, we find you have demonstrated release of the information at issue would identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of the city's fire hydrant system to an act of terrorism. Thus, the city must withhold the information you have indicated under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.181 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
