Dear Mr. Garcia:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 771828 (CCPD File No. JSav11).

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for gang unit crime reports during specified time periods. You state the department will release some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Article 67.051(a) provides, in part, "a criminal justice agency . . . shall compile criminal information into an intelligence database for the purpose of investigating or prosecuting the criminal activities of criminal combinations or criminal street gangs." A criminal justice agency may release on request information maintained under this chapter to:

- (1) another criminal justice agency;
- (2) a court; or
- (3) a defendant in a criminal proceeding who is entitled to the discovery of the information under Chapter 39[.]

Id. art. 67.101(a). Further, article 67.103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides release of this information to a person who is not entitled to the information is a Class A misdemeanor. See id. art. 67.103(b). You represent the submitted information was “compiled into an intelligence database for the purpose of investigating or prosecuting the criminal activities of criminal combinations or criminal street gangs.” We understand the requestor is not entitled to obtain the information under article 67.101. Therefore, we conclude the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 67.101 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
