Dear Ms. Harden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 775332 (PIR No. R000907).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for information pertaining to a specified investigation. The OAG states it will release basic information in accordance with section 552.108(c) of the Government Code, as well as court-filed documents. See Gov't Code §§ 552.022(a)(17) (information filed with a court is generally a matter of public record and may not be withheld from disclosure), .108(c) (section 552.108 does not except from public disclosure basic information about arrested person, arrest, or crime). The OAG states it will redact some information pursuant to sections 552.136(c) and 552.147(b) of the Government Code.¹ Further, the OAG states it will redact certain ¹Section 552.136(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact, without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office, the information described in section 552.136(b). Gov't Code § 552.136(c); see also id. § 552.136(d)-(e) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.136(c) to attorney general and governmental body withholding information pursuant to section 552.136(c) must provide certain notice to requestor). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Id. § 552.147(b).

information subject to section 552.139 of the Government Code, which we understand it will do in accordance with Open Records Letter Nos. 2011-18124 (2011) and 2016-21830 (2016).² The OAG claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the OAG asserts and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.³

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Id. § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). The OAG states the information at issue pertains to an active criminal investigation being conducted by the OAG’s Criminal Prosecutions Division. Further, the OAG states release of the information at issue would interfere with the pending investigation. Based on the OAG’s representations, we conclude the release of this information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, the OAG may withhold the information at issue under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. ²In Open Records Letter No. 2011-18124, this office issued the OAG a previous determination authorizing it to withhold an employee’s user identification under section 552.139 of the Government Code without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. In Open Records Letter No. 2016-21830, this office issued the OAG a previous determination authorizing it to withhold photographs of its employees created specifically for use on identification badges under section 552.139(b)(3) of the Government Code.

³We assume the “representative sample” of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.
