Re: Request for information relating to the use of forensic hypnosis within the Denton County Sheriff's Office including case numbers of instances where hypnosis was used since 2000; Reference# S001809.

Dear Ms. Miller:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 783585.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. In releasing the basic information, you must withhold the complainant's identifying information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/og/memorulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
