Mr. William Overton
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004

OR2019-21190

Dear Mr. Overton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 778755 (OGC# DT0154).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to the requestor's client. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.134 and 552.136 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.134(a) of the Government Code relates to inmates of the department and provides the following:

Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an <sup>1</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). Section 552.134 is explicitly made subject to section 552.029, which provides, in relevant part, the following:

Notwithstanding Section . . . 552.134, the following information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the [department] is subject to required disclosure under Section 552.021:

(8) basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving the inmate.

Id. § 552.029(8). Thus, the legislature explicitly made section 552.134 subject to section 552.029. You contend the submitted information falls within the scope of section 552.134. Upon review, we find the responsive information pertains to an inmate confined in a facility operated by the department and is subject to section 552.134. We note the submitted information contains information pertaining to an alleged crime involving an inmate. Therefore, the department must release basic information regarding the alleged crime pursuant to section 552.029(8). See id. For purposes of section 552.029(8), basic information includes the time and place of the incident, the names of inmates and department employees who were directly involved, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained by anyone involved, and information regarding any criminal charges or disciplinary actions that were filed as a result of the incident. Accordingly, except for basic information under section 552.029(8) of the Government Code, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>
