

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

August 23, 2019

Ms. April L. Liwanag
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Board of Nursing
333 Guadalupe Street, Suite 3-460
Austin, Texas 78701

OR2019-23561

Dear Ms. Liwanag:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 782587 (BON Ref. No. 19-21).

The Texas Board of Nursing (the "board") received a request for information pertaining to a named individual. You state you are releasing some information. You also state you are withholding social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.137 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>2</sup> We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

<sup>1</sup> Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

<sup>2</sup> We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Id. § 552.101. This exception encompasses section 301.466 of the Occupations Code, which provides, in part, the following:

(a) A complaint and investigation concerning a nurse under this subchapter, all information and material compiled by the board in connection with the complaint and investigation, and the information described by Subsection (d) are:

(1) confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]; and

(2) not subject to disclosure, discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for release to anyone other than the board or a board employee or agent involved in license holder discipline.

(c) The filing of formal charges against a nurse by the board, the nature of those charges, disciplinary proceedings of the board, and final disciplinary actions, including warnings and reprimands, by the board are not confidential and are subject to disclosure in accordance with [the Act].

Occ. Code § 301.466(a), (c). You state Attachment B consists of an investigative file involving the named individual. The board explains the information at issue was created or collected as part of the board’s investigation of a nurse. We understand none of the submitted information is a type of information contemplated by section 301.466(c). Further, we agree the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b). Accordingly, we conclude the board must withhold Attachment B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a) of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. Section 301.207 provides as follows:

The following information that a person submits to the board for a petition for a declaratory order of eligibility for a license or for an application for an initial license or a license renewal under this chapter is confidential to the same extent information collected on a nurse as part of an investigation of a complaint is confidential under Section 301.466:

(1) information, including diagnosis and treatment, regarding a person’s physical or mental condition, intemperate use of drugs or alcohol, or chemical dependency;

(2) information regarding a person’s criminal history; and

(3) any other information in the petition for declaratory order of eligibility.

Id. § 301.207. You state the information you marked is confidential under section 301.207. Upon review, we agree the information you marked is confidential under section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. Further, we find the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b), and the information at issue does not fall under section 301.466(c). Therefore, we conclude the board must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code.

You assert the date of birth in the remaining information is excepted from public disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. Section 552.101 also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The Third Court of Appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). Thus, the board must withhold the public citizen's date of birth in the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body" unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See Gov't Code § 552.137(a)-(c). The e-mail address at issue is not excluded by subsection (c). Therefore, the board must withhold the personal e-mail address you marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure.

In summary, the board must withhold Attachment B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a) of the Occupations Code. The board must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. The board must withhold the public citizen's date of birth in the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The board must withhold the personal e-mail address you marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure. The board must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
