

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

August 23, 2019

Ms. Amanda Ruddy
Deputy City Clerk
City of Wichita Falls
P.O. Box 1431
Wichita Falls, Texas 76307

OR2019-23609

Dear Ms. Ruddy:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 782733 (City ID# 563).

The City of Wichita Falls (the "city") received a request for a specified police report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information protected by section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code. § 261.201(a). We note the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation by the city's police department of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect. See id. § 261.001 (defining "abuse" and "neglect" for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining "child" for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Accordingly, the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. You have not indicated the city's police department has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Therefore, we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the submitted information is generally confidential pursuant to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. However, section 261.201 provides information encompassed by subsection (a) may be disclosed "for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law." Id. § 261.201(a). We note chapter 411 of the Government Code constitutes "applicable state law" in this instance.

Section 411.089(a) of the Government Code provides "[a] criminal justice agency is entitled to obtain from the [Department of Public Safety ("DPS")] any criminal history record information [{"CHRI"}] maintained by the [DPS] about a person." Gov't Code § 411.089(a); see also id. § 411.083(b)(1) (providing the DPS shall grant criminal justice agencies access to CHRI). In addition, section 411.087(a) of the Government Code provides in pertinent part:

(a) [A] person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter or Subchapter E-1 to obtain from the [DPS] [CHRI] maintained by the [DPS] that relates to another person is authorized to:

(2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state [CHRI] maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). We note CHRI is defined as "information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions." See id. § 411.082(2). A criminal justice agency that receives CHRI from another criminal justice agency pursuant to section 411.087(a)(2) may only receive such information for a criminal justice purpose. See id. §§ 411.083(c), .087(b); see also Open Records Decision No. 655 (1997) (discussing limitations on release of CHRI). Thus, to the extent the requestor in this instance represents a "criminal justice agency," the requestor is authorized to obtain CHRI from the city pursuant to section 411.087(a)(2) of the Government Code, but only for a criminal justice purpose and for purposes consistent with the Family Code. See Fam. Code § 261.201(a); Gov't Code §§ 411.083(c), .087(a)(2).

A “criminal justice agency” is defined in part as “a federal or state agency that is engaged in the administration of criminal justice under a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice[.]” Gov't Code § 411.082(3)(A). “Administration of criminal justice” has the meaning assigned by article 66.001 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. See id. § 411.082(1). Article 66.001 of the Code of Criminal Procedure defines “administration of criminal justice” as the “detection, apprehension, detention, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of an offender. The term includes criminal identification activities and the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information.” Crim. Proc. Code art. 66.001.

The requestor in this instance is a representative of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Human Resources Headquarters and may have a right of access to some of the information at issue. However, although the requestor is a representative of a criminal justice agency, we are unable to determine if she is engaged in the administration of criminal justice and intends to use the information for a criminal justice purpose. We note a criminal justice purpose includes screening of applicants for employment with a criminal justice agency. Gov't Code § 411.082(4)(B). Furthermore, we are unable to determine whether release of the information in this instance is consistent with the Family Code. Consequently, if the city determines the requestor is engaged in the administration of criminal justice and intends to use the information for a criminal justice purpose, and release of the information is consistent with the Family Code, we conclude the city must make available to the requestor the CHRI from the submitted information that shows the type of allegation made and whether there were arrests, informations, indictments, detentions, convictions, or other formal charges and their dispositions. Although you assert this information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code, statutes governing the release of specific information prevail over the general exceptions to disclosure in the Act. See Attorney General Opinion DM-146 at 3 (1992); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions to Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act). In that event, the city must withhold the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. However, if the city determines the requestor is not engaged in the administration of criminal justice, does not intend to use the information for a criminal justice purpose, or that release of the information is not consistent with the Family Code, the city must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> In that instance, as our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
