ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

August 28, 2019

Mr. Brandon S. Davis
Counsel for the City of Liberty
Fielder & Davis
1517 Trinity Street
Liberty, Texas 77575

OR2019-24082

Dear Mr. Davis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 782989.

The City of Liberty (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for information related to a specified type of property. You state you will release some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information protected by section 182.052 of the Utilities Code, which provides, in part:

- (a) Except as provided by Section 182.054, a government-operated utility may not disclose personal information in a customer's account record, or any information relating to the volume or units of utility usage or the amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage, if the customer requests that the government-operated utility keep the information confidential. However, a government-operated utility may disclose information related to the customer's volume or units of utility usage or amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage if the primary source of water for such utility was a sole-source designated aquifer.

<sup>1</sup>We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(b) A customer may request confidentiality by delivering to the government-operated utility an appropriately marked form provided under Subsection (c)(3) or any other written request for confidentiality.

Util. Code § 182.052(a)-(b). "Personal information" under section 182.052(a) means an individual's address, telephone number, or social security number, but does not include the individual's name. See id. § 182.051(4); see also Open Records Decision No. 625 (1994) (construing statutory predecessor). We note because section 182.052 is intended to protect the safety and privacy of individual customers, this statute is applicable only to information pertaining to natural persons and does not protect information relating to business, governmental, and other artificial entities. See ORD 625 at 4-5 (in context of section 182.051(4) of the Utilities Code, "individual" means only natural persons and does not include artificial entities). Water services are included in the scope of utility services covered by section 182.052. Util. Code § 182.051(3). A customer's request for confidentiality must precede the utility's receipt of the request for information. ORD 625 at 6.

Upon review, we find the information we have marked is subject to section 182.052(a) of the Utilities Code. You state the individual whose information is at issue is a utility customer and timely requested confidentiality under section 182.052. In addition, you state the city's primary source of water is not a sole-source designated aquifer. There is no indication the exceptions listed in section 182.054 apply. Accordingly, the city must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 182.052(a) of the Utilities Code. However, the remaining information is not confidential under section 182.052(a), and the city may not withhold it under section 552.101 on that ground.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The court of appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). Thus, the city must withhold the public citizen's date of birth in the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release.<sup>2</sup> See Gov't Code § 552.130. Accordingly, the city must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must: (1) withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 182.052(a) of the Utilities Code; (2) withhold the public citizen's date of birth in the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy; (3) withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code; and (4) must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
