Dear Ms. Coats:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 787392.

The Dallas County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for grand jury pertaining to specified prosecutions. The district attorney's office states it has released some of the requested information, but claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides "[t]he proceedings of the grand jury shall be secret." Crim. Proc. Code art. 20.02(a). In construing article 20.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the types of "proceedings" Texas courts have generally stated are secret are testimony presented to the grand jury and the deliberations of the grand jury. See In re Reed, 227 S.W.3d 273, 276 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2007, orig. proceeding). The submitted information consists of transcripts of grand jury testimony. Therefore, the submitted information is confidential under article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the district attorney's office must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that ground. See Open Records Decision No. 513 at 4 (1988) (information must be withheld if its release would reveal grand jury's deliberations).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
