Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth

Dear Mr. Murray:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 788070 (PIR No. W087787).

The Fort Worth Police Department (the "department") received a request for fourteen categories of information pertaining to a specified motor vehicle accident involving the requestor's clients. You state the department will release the majority of the requested information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. We note the submitted information consists of a recording from a police officer's body worn camera. Section 1701.661(a) of the Occupations Code states the information a requestor must provide when seeking a body worn camera recording. See Occ. Code § 1701.661(a). We note the requestor provides the requisite information for the body worn ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

camera recording at issue. The submitted recording reflects it was required to be made by law or the policies of the department and the recording relates to a law enforcement purpose. See id. § 1701.661(h). We understand the recording at issue is or could be used as evidence in a criminal prosecution. See id. § 1701.661(d). Additionally, we have no indication the recording documents an incident that involves the use of deadly force by an officer or relates to an administrative or criminal investigation of an officer. See id. § 1701.660(a). We note, however, section 1701.661(f) provides, in relevant part:

A law enforcement agency may not release any portion . . . of a recording involving the investigation of conduct that constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by fine only and does not result in arrest, without written authorization from the person who is the subject of that portion of the recording or, if the person is deceased, from the person's authorized representative.

Id. § 1701.661(f). You state the submitted recording pertains to the investigation of conduct that constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by fine only and which did not result in an arrest. You further state the department has not received a written authorization for release from all of the subjects of the recording. See id. Accordingly, the submitted body worn camera recording is confidential and the department must withhold it in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1701.661(f) of the Occupations Code.

You also ask this office to issue a previous determination permitting the department to withhold body worn camera recordings involving the investigation of a motor vehicle accident that constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by fine only and that does not result in arrest and that are without written authorization from all subjects of the recordings under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1701.661(f) of the Occupations Code without seeking a ruling from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301 (a) (allowing governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code). We decline to issue such a ruling at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
