Dear Ms. Ortiz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 797681 (ORR# P0036190-083019).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. The department claims the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception.

The department has submitted documentation demonstrating the requested information is subject to a court orders of restricted access received by the department that were issued prior to September 1, 2017. The orders were entered in accordance with repealed section 58.203 of the Family Code as that law existed before September 1, 2017, which stated the Texas Department of Public Safety shall certify that juvenile law enforcement records are subject to automatic restriction of access under certain circumstances. See Act of May 28, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., ch. 746 (S.B. 1304), § 21 (repealing section 58.203 of the Family Code). However, section 58.260(a) of the Family Code now provides the following:

(a) A juvenile court may allow, by order, the inspection of records sealed under this subchapter or under Section 58.003, as that law existed before September 1, 2017, only by:

- (1) a person named in the order, on the petition of the person who is the subject of the records;
- (2) a prosecutor, on the petition of the prosecutor, for the purposes of reviewing the records for possible use:
 - (A) in a capital prosecution; or
 - (B) for the enhancement of punishment under Section 12.42, Penal Code; or
- (3) a court, the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, or the Texas Juvenile Justice Department for the purposes of Article 62.007(e), Code of Criminal Procedure.

Id. § 58.260(a). Section 58.258 of the Family Code also provides, in part, as follows:

(a) An order sealing the records of a person under this subchapter must include either the following information or the reason one or more of the following is not included in the order:

(5) a list of the entities believed to be in possession of the records that have been ordered sealed, including the entities listed under Subsection (b).

(b) Not later than the 60th day after the entry of the order, the court shall provide a copy of the order to:

(6) each law enforcement agency that had contact with the person in relation to the conduct that is the subject of the sealing order[.]

(c) ... The clerk of court shall:

(2) send copies of the order to all entities listed in the order.

Id. § 58.258(a)(5), (b)(6), (c)(2). Moreover, section 58.259(c) of the Family Code provides, “[i]f an entity that received an order to seal records relating to a person later receives an inquiry about a person or the matter contained in the records, the entity must respond that no records relating to the person or the matter exist.” Id. § 58.259(a). The requestor is not one of the individuals or entities listed in section 58.260 to which access is allowed. Therefore, pursuant to the order of restricted access received by the department and section 58.259 of the Family Code, the department must respond to this request for information by stating the requested information does not exist.¹
