Dear Ms. Kreh:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 801621.

The Flower Mound Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a named individual. The department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

The requestor is a representative of the Adult Protective Services ("APS") division of the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services ("DFPS"). Under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code, DFPS's duties include the investigation of abuse, neglect, or exploitation in the provision of services to an elderly person. See Hum. Res. Code §§48.151, .152. Section 48.154(a) of the Human Resources Code provides as follows:

[DFPS] or another state agency, as appropriate, shall have access to any records or documents, including client-identifying information, financial records, and medical and psychological records, necessary to the performance of [DFPS]'s or state agency's duties under this chapter. The duties include but are not limited to the investigation of abuse, neglect, or exploitation or the provisions of services to an elderly or person with a disability. A person, agency, or institution that has a record or document that [DFPS] or state agency needs to perform its duties under this chapter shall, without unnecessary delay, make the record or document available to [DFPS] or state agency that requested the record or document.

Id. § 48.154(a). We understand APS seeks the records at issue as part of an investigation. Consequently, we conclude DFPS requires this information in order to perform its duties under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code, which include investigation of abuse, neglect, or exploitation of an elderly person. See id. §§ 48.151, .152, .154(a). Thus, the requestor has a right of access to the information pursuant to section 48.154. A statutory right of access prevails over the Act's general exceptions to public disclosure and common-law privacy. See Collins v. Tex Mall, L.P., 297 S.W.3d 409, 415 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2009, no pet.) (statutory provision controls and preempts common law only when statute directly conflicts with common-law principle); Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exception to disclosure under the Act); see also CenterPoint Energy Houston Elec. LLC v. Harris County Toll Rd. Auth., 436 F.3d 541, 544 (5th Cir. 2006) (common law controls only where there is no conflicting or controlling statutory law). Therefore, the department may not withhold the submitted information from the requestor under section 552.108 of the Government Code or common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130. Accordingly, the motor vehicle record information that the department has marked is generally confidential under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

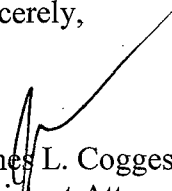

Because section 552.130 of the Government Code has its own access provisions, section 552.130 is not a general exception under the Act. Therefore, we must address the conflict between the access provided under section 48.154 of the Human Resources Code and the confidentiality provided under section 552.130 of the Government Code. Where information falls within both a general and specific provision of law, the specific provision prevails over the general. See Gov't Code § 311.026; Cuellar, 521 S.W.2d at 277. Although section 48.154 generally provides DFPS representatives with access to information necessary to perform their duties under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code, section 552.130 of the Government Code is specifically applicable only to motor vehicle record information. Thus, we find section 552.130 of the Government Code is more specific than the general right of access under section 48.154. Moreover, the statutory predecessor to section 48.154, former section 48.0835 of the Human Resources Code, was enacted prior to section 552.130 of the Government Code. See Act of May 30, 1997, 75th Leg., R.S., ch. 1187, § 4, 1997 Tex. Gen. Laws 4575, 4580 (enacting Gov't Code §552.130); Act of May 24, 1993, 73d Leg., R.S., ch. 651, § 1, 1993 Tex. Gen. Laws 2436 (enacting former Hum. Res. Code § 48.0835). Consequently, we find the confidentiality provided by section 552.130 is more specific than the right of access provided by section 48.154. Accordingly, the department must withhold the information it has marked under section

552.130 of the Government Code. The department must release the remaining information pursuant to section 48.154 of the Human Resources Code.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
