Re: Request for information pertaining to a specified arrest.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 808220 (MCSO ORR File 19PIA462).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we find you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code and the citation.¹ However, we conclude you may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1).

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

c: Requestor
(w/o enclosures)

¹ We note the requestor has a right of access to some of the information being released in this instance. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates or person's agent on ground that information is considered confidential by privacy principles); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individuals request information concerning themselves). Thus, if you receive another request for the same information from a different requestor, you must again seek a decision from this office.
