Dear Mr. Davis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 811206 (File ID 1600/70177).

The Collin County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office"), which you represent, received four requests from the same requestor for information pertaining to the requestor and his incarceration. The sheriff's office states it does not maintain information responsive to a portion of the requests.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, 552.108, and 552.1175 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

Initially, we note the submitted information contains court-filed documents. Section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code provides for required public disclosure of "information that is also contained in a public court record," unless the information is made confidential under the Act or other law. Id. § 552.022(a)(17). Although the sheriff's office seeks to withhold this information under sections 552.103 and 552.108 of the Government Code, these sections are discretionary exceptions and do not make information confidential under the Act. See Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W.3d 469, 475-76 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive Gov't Code § 552.103); Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions), 177 at 3 (1977) (statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.108 subject to waiver). As such, sections 552.103 and 552.108 do not make information confidential for the purposes of section 552.022. Accordingly, the sheriff's office may not withhold the court-filed documents, which we have marked, under section 552.103 or section 552.108. However, as sections 552.101 and 552.1175 of the Government Code make information confidential under the Act, we will consider their applicability to the information at issue. Further, we will address your arguments against disclosure of the remaining information.

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime... if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the information at issue relates to an ongoing criminal case, and release of the information would interfere with the investigation and prosecution of the case. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the remaining information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the remaining information. Accordingly, the sheriff's office may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

In summary, the sheriff's office must release the marked court-filed documents pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. The sheriff's office may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.
