Dear Ms. Pemberton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 820846.

The City of Killeen (the "city") received a request for specified forms involving the requestor. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.1177 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.1177(a) of the Government Code relates to the humane disposition by a municipality or county of an animal and provides the following:

Except as provided by Subsection (b), information is confidential and excepted from [required public disclosure] if the information relates to the name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, driver's license number, social security number, or other personally identifying information of a person who obtains ownership or control of an animal from a municipality or county making a humane disposition of the animal under a municipal ordinance or an order of the commissioners court.

Gov't Code § 552.1177(a). You state the information you have marked identifies a person who adopted an animal from the city's animal shelter. You also represent the city's animal shelter made a humane disposition of the animal at issue under a municipal ordinance.

Based on these representations, we find the city must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.1177 of the Government Code. The city must release the remaining information.
