OR2020-06802

Dear Ms. Soto:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 815487 (ORR# 19-1211-02).

The South Padre Island Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. The department states it has released some of the requested information, but claims some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information subject to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. Section 550.065 applies only to a written report of an accident required under section 550.061, 550.062, or 601.004. Transp. Code § 550.065(a)(1). Chapter 550 requires the creation of a written report when the accident resulted in injury to or the death of a person or damage to the property of any person to the apparent extent of $1,000 or more. Id. §§ 550.061 (operator's accident report), .062 (officer's accident report). An accident report is privileged and for the confidential use of the Texas Department of Transportation or a local governmental agency of Texas that has use for the information for accident prevention purposes. Id. § 550.065(b). However, a governmental entity shall release an accident report in accordance with subsections (c) and (c-1). Id.

§ 550.065(c), (c-1). Section 550.065(c) provides a governmental entity shall release an accident report to a person or entity listed under this subsection. Id. § 550.065(c).

The submitted information contains a CR-3 accident report that is subject to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. We are unable to determine whether the requestor is a person listed under section 550.065(c). Thus, we must rule conditionally. If the requestor is a person listed under section 550.065(c) of the Transportation Code, then the department must release the CR-3 accident report pursuant to section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code. If the requestor is not a person listed under section 550.065(c), then the department must withhold the report under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code. Nevertheless, section 550.065(c-1) requires the department to create a redacted accident report that may be requested by any person. Id. § 550.065(c-1). The redacted accident report may not include the information listed in subsection (f)(2). Id. Therefore, if the requestor is not a person listed under section 550.065(c), then the department must release the redacted accident report pursuant to section 550.065(c-1) of the Transportation Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The Third Court of Appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. See Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). We agree the department must withhold the date of birth it has marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

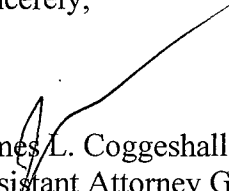

In summary, if the requestor is a person listed under section 550.065(c) of the Transportation Code, then the department must release the CR-3 accident report pursuant to section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code. If the requestor is not a person listed under section 550.065(c), then the department must withhold the submitted accident report under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code, but release the redacted accident report pursuant to section 550.065(c-1) of the Transportation Code. The department must withhold the date of birth it has marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The department must release the remaining information.
