OR2020-08161

Dear Ms. Heil:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 817409.

The Leander Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. The department states it will withhold information pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code.¹ The department also states it has released some of the requested information, but claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses sections 772.118, 772.218, and 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. Chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code authorizes the development of local emergency communication districts. Sections 772.118, 772.218, and 772.318 are applicable to emergency 9-1-1 districts established in accordance with chapter 772. See Open Records Decision No. 649 (1996). These sections make the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers that are furnished by a service supplier confidential. Id. at 2. Section 772.118 applies to an emergency communication district for a county with a population of more than 3.3 million. Section 772.218 applies to an emergency communication district for a county with a population of more than 1.5 million. Section 772.318 applies to an emergency communication district for a county with a population of more than 20,000.

The department asserts the information at issue contains the originating telephone number of a 9-1-1 caller. However, the department does not inform us whether it is part of an emergency communication district established under section 772.118, 772.218, or 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. Nevertheless, if the department is part of an emergency communication district established under one of these sections, then, to the extent the telephone number of the 9-1-1 caller was supplied by a 9-1-1 service supplier, then it must withhold this information, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.118, 772.218, or 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. If the department is not subject to section 772.118, 772.218, or 772.318, or if the telephone number was not supplied by a 9-1-1 service supplier, then the department may not withhold the information on any of those grounds.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The Third Court of Appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. See Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). The department must withhold the submitted dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code provides, in part, the following:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

- (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime;
- (2) it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication;
- (3) it is information relating to a threat against a peace officer or detention officer collected or disseminated under Section 411.048;
or
- (4) it is information that:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

(b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the internal record or notation would interfere with law enforcement or prosecution;

(2) the internal record or notation relates to law enforcement only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication; or

(3) the internal record or notation:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)-(b). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) or 552.108(b)(1) must explain how and why the release of the information at issue would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), (b)(1), 552.301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706, 710 (Tex. 1977). The department does not inform us the submitted information pertains to an ongoing criminal investigation or prosecution, nor has the department explained how its release would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. Thus, the department has not met its burden under section 552.108(a)(1) or 552.108(b)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) or 552.108(b)(2) must demonstrate the information at issue relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. The department has not demonstrated the investigation at issue has concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Thus, the department has not met its burden under section 552.108(a)(2) or 552.108(b)(2). Section 552.108(a)(3) is also inapplicable as the submitted information does not relate to a threat against a police officer. See Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(3). Finally, the department does not assert the information at issue was prepared by an attorney representing the state or that it reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state. See id. § 552.108(a)(4), (b)(3). Therefore, the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.108.

In summary, the department must withhold the telephone number we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.118, 772.218, or 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code if the department is part of an emergency communication district established under one of these sections and the telephone number at issue was supplied by a 9-1-1 service supplier. The department must also withhold the submitted dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The department must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
