Re: ORRs R130-020520 and R000136-020620

Dear Ms. Berry:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 824532.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information, which we understand constitutes a representative sample of information,¹ may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments, except to note basic information does not include dates of birth and basic information is generally not excepted from public disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. Open Records Decision Nos. 597 (1991), 127 at 3-4 (1976).

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

¹This letter ruling assumes that the submitted representative sample of information is truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling does not reach, and therefore does not authorize, the withholding of any other requested information to the extent that the other information is substantially different than that submitted to this office. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(D), .302; Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).
