Dear Ms. Anderson:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 826804 (RR_1816).

Houston Community College (the "college") received a request for bid tabulations pertaining to a specified request for proposals.¹ Although the college takes no position regarding whether the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under the Act, the college informs us its release may implicate the proprietary interests of the following third parties: AED Brand, LLC; Allied 100, LLC d/b/a AED Superstore; Jenkins Insurance Agency; One Beat CPR Learning Center, LLC; School Health Corporation; SI Medical Supply, LLC; The Basileia Group, Inc. d/b/a New Dimension Pharmacy; and W.W. Grainger, Inc. ("Grainger"). Accordingly, the college states, and provides documentation showing, it notified these third parties of the request for information and of their right to submit arguments to this office. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have received comments from Grainger. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

An interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) of the Government Code to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have only received comments from Grainger explaining why the information at issue should not be released. Thus, we have no basis to conclude the remaining third parties have a protected proprietary interest in the submitted information. See id. § 552.110; Open Records Decision Nos. 661 at 5-6 (1999) (to prevent disclosure of commercial or financial information, party must show by specific factual evidence, not conclusory or generalized allegations, release of requested information would cause that party substantial competitive harm), 552 at 5 (1990) (party must establish prima facie case that information is trade secret), 542 at 3. Therefore, the college may not withhold the submitted information on the basis of any proprietary interest the remaining third parties may have in the information.

Grainger raises section 552.104 of the Government Code for a portion of its information. Section 552.104 excepts from disclosure information "if a governmental body demonstrates that release of the information would harm its interests by providing an advantage to a competitor or bidder in a particular ongoing competitive situation or in a particular competitive situation where the governmental body establishes the situation at issue is set to reoccur or there is a specific and demonstrable intent to enter into the competitive situation again in the future." Gov't Code § 552.104(a) (emphasis added). In Boeing Co. v. Paxton, 466 S.W.3d 831 (Tex. 2015), the Texas Supreme Court held section 552.104 does not preclude third parties from raising section 552.104 as an exception to disclosure. See Boeing, 466 S.W.3d at 842. However, the Eighty-sixth Legislature has amended section 552.104 since the issuance of Boeing. See Act of May 25, 2019, 86th Leg., R.S., S.B. 943, § 3. Section 552.104 now expressly limits the protections of section 552.104 to governmental bodies. Gov't Code 552.104(a). Therefore, we do not address Grainger's arguments under section 552.104.

Granger also claims section 552.110 of the Government Code for a portion of its information. Section 552.110(b) of the Government Code states, "[e]xcept as provided by [s]ection 552.0222, information is [excepted from required disclosure] if it is demonstrated based on specific factual evidence that the information is a trade secret." See id. § 552.110(b). Section 552.110(a) defines a trade secret as all forms and types of information if:

- (1) the owner of the trade secret has taken reasonable measures under the circumstances to keep the information secret; and
- (2) the information derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable through proper means by, another person who can obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of the information.

Id. § 552.110(a). Section 552.110(c) of the Government Code states:

(c) Except as provided by Section 552.0222, commercial or financial information for which it is demonstrated based on specific factual evidence that disclosure would cause substantial competitive harm to the person from whom the information was obtained is [excepted from required disclosure].

Id. § 552.110(c). Additionally, we note section 552.0222(b) lists certain types of information to which section 552.110 does not apply. See id. § 552.0222(b). Grainger argues some of its information consists of trade secrets subject to section 552.110(b) and commercial or financial information subject to section 552.110(c). Upon review, however, we find the information at issue is subject to section 552.0222(b) and may not be withheld on the basis of section 552.110(b) or section 552.110(c). Therefore, the college may not withhold any of the information at issue under section 552.110 of the Government Code. As no other arguments against disclosure are made, the college must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
