ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

May 21, 2020

Mr. Thomas Gilliland
Public Information Officer
Harris County Sheriffs Office
1200 Baker Street, 2nd Floor
Houston, Texas 77002

OR2020-14309

Dear Mr. Gilliland:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 829978.

The Harris County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for all records related to a named individual during a specified time period. The sheriff's office claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the sheriff's office claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information made confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). The submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse or neglect under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201), 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of section 261.201 of Family Code). Accordingly, we find the submitted information is subject to section 261.201 of the Family Code. The sheriff’s office states it has not adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Therefore, the information at issue is confidential pursuant to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute). Accordingly, the sheriff’s office must generally withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.

However, we note the requestor is a representative of the Office of the Federal Public Defender of the Western District of Texas (the “public defender’s office”). Section 411.1272 of the Government Code provides:

The office of capital and forensic writs and a public defender’s office are entitled to obtain from the [Texas Department of Public Safety (“DPS”)] criminal history record information [(“CHRI”)] maintained by the [DPS] that relates to a criminal case in which an attorney compensated . . . by the public defender’s office has been appointed.

Gov’t Code § 411.1272. “Public defender’s office” has the meaning assigned by article 26.044(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Id. § 411.082(6); see also Crim. Proc. Code art. 26.044(a)(4). In addition, section 411.087(a) of the Government Code provides:

(a) Unless otherwise authorized by Subsection (e), a person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter or Subchapter E-1 to obtain from the [DPS] criminal history record information maintained by the [DPS] that relates to another person is authorized to:

(2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state criminal history record information maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). “Criminal history record information” (“CHRI”) is defined as “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” See id. § 411.082(2). We note the submitted information contains CHRI. Accordingly, the requestor is authorized to obtain the CHRI in the information at issue from the sheriff’s office pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.1272 of the Government Code if it relates to a criminal case in which an attorney compensated by the public defender’s office is appointed, but only for purposes consistent with the Family Code. See id. §§ 411.087(a)(2), .1272; see also Fam. Code § 261.201(a).

We are unable to determine whether the information relates to a criminal case in which an attorney compensated by the public defender’s office is appointed and whether the requestor intends to use the CHRI in the submitted information for purposes consistent with the Family Code. Therefore, if the sheriff’s office determines the submitted information relates to a criminal case in which an attorney compensated by the public defender’s office is appointed, and the sheriff’s office determines the requestor intends to use the CHRI in the submitted information for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the sheriff’s office must release the CHRI to the requestor and must withhold the remaining information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. If the sheriff’s office determines the information at issue does not relate to a criminal case in which an attorney compensated by the public defender’s office is appointed, or if the sheriff’s office determines the requestor does not intend to use the CHRI in the submitted information for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the sheriff’s office must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. See Fam. Code § 261.201(b)-(g) (listing entities authorized to receive section 261.201 information); Open Records Decision Nos. 655, 440 at 2.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Claire V. Morris Sloan
Assistant Attorney General
