Dear Ms. Liwanag:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 830293 (Ref. No. 20-18).

The Texas Board of Nursing (the "board") received a request for licensing information pertaining to a named individual and information concerning complaints against that named individual. You state the board is redacting social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.¹ You also state the board will release some information to the requestor. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 301.466 of the Occupations Code, which provides, in part:

- (a) A complaint and investigation concerning a nurse under this subchapter, all information and material compiled by the board in connection with the complaint and investigation, and the information described by Subsection (d) are:

¹ Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

- (1) confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]; and
- (2) not subject to disclosure, discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for release to anyone other than the board or a board employee or agent involved in license holder discipline.

(c) The filing of formal charges against a nurse by the board, the nature of those charges, disciplinary proceedings of the board, and final disciplinary actions, including warnings and reprimands, by the board are not confidential and are subject to disclosure in accordance with [the Act].

Occ. Code § 301.466(a), (c). You state the information submitted as Attachment B consists of an investigative file involving the individual named in the request. You explain the information at issue was created or collected as part of the board's investigation of a nurse. You state, and we agree, none of the information at issue is a type of information contemplated by section 301.466(c). Further, we agree the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b). See id. § 301.466(b). Accordingly, the board must withhold Attachment B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a) of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 301.207 of the Occupations Code, which provides:

The following information that a person submits to the board for a petition for a declaratory order of eligibility for a license or for an application for an initial license or a license renewal under this chapter is confidential to the same extent information collected on a nurse as part of an investigation of a complaint is confidential under Section 301.466:

- (1) information, including diagnosis and treatment, regarding a person's physical or mental condition, intemperate use of drugs or alcohol, or chemical dependency;
- (2) information regarding a person's criminal history; and
- (3) any other information in the petition for declaratory order of eligibility.

Id. § 301.207. You assert the information you marked is confidential under section 301.207. Further, we find the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b), and the information at issue does not fall under section 301.466(c). Accordingly, the board must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The Third Court of Appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). Accordingly, the board must withhold the date of birth you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

In summary, the board must withhold: (1) Attachment B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a) of the Occupations Code; (2) the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code; and (3) the date of birth you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.
