Dear Ms. Roberts:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 832777 (ORR# 98192).

The Arlington Police Department (the "department") received a request for records related to a named individual. The department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the department claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). The submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect conducted by the department. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes), 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. The department does not indicate it has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information and therefore we assume no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the department must generally withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute).

However, we note the requestor is licensure analyst for the Texas Medical Board (the “board”). Section 153.006(a) of the Occupations Code constitutes applicable state law and provides “[t]he board may receive criminal record reports from any law enforcement agency or another source regarding a license holder or license applicant.” Occ. Code § 153.006(a). In this instance, the board seeks access to criminal records pertaining to an individual who has an application for licensure. Thus, if the department determines the release of the submitted information would not be for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the board does not have a right of access to this information and the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. However, if the department determines the release of the submitted information would be for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department generally must release the information to the board pursuant to section 153.006(a). In that instance, we will consider additional exceptions to disclosure of the submitted information.

We note portions of the submitted information consist of motor vehicle record information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ Section 552.130 provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a)(1). Accordingly, we find the department must generally withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

Thus, there is a conflict between the confidentiality provided by section 552.130 of the Government Code and the right of access provided by section 153.006 of the Occupations Code. A statutory right of access prevails over the Act's general exceptions to disclosure. See Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under Act). However, because section 552.130 has its own access provisions, we conclude section 552.130 is not a general exception under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.130(b) (information described by section 552.130(a) may only be released in manner authorized by chapter 730 of Transportation Code). Where general and specific statutes are in irreconcilable conflict, the specific provision typically prevails as an exception to the general provision, unless the general provision was enacted later and there is clear evidence the legislature intended the general provision to prevail. See id. § 311.026(b); City of Lake Dallas v. Lake Cities Mun. Util. Auth., 555 S.W.2d 163, 168 (Tex. Civ. App.—Fort Worth 1977, writ ref'd n.r.e.). Although section 153.006 provides the board access to criminal record reports regarding a license holder or license applicant, section 552.130 of the Government Code specifically protects motor vehicle record information. Furthermore, section 552.130 of the Government Code was enacted later than section 153.006. See Act of Aug. 5, 1981, 67th Leg., 1st C.S., ch. 1, § 1, 1981 Tex. Gen. Laws 1, 7 (enacting statutory predecessor to section 153.006); Act of June 20, 1997, 75th Leg., R.S., ch. 1187 § 4, 1997 Tex. Gen. Laws 4575, 4580 (enacting section 552.130). We therefore conclude, notwithstanding section 153.006, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, if the department determines the release of the submitted information would not be for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. If the department determines the release of the submitted information would be for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code and must release the remaining information to this requestor.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
