Dear Mr. Gates:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 835143 (ORR# M030000).

The Midland Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a named individual. The department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.117 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure the home addresses and telephone numbers, emergency contact information, social security numbers, and family member information of current or former officials or employees of a governmental body who request that this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code. Gov't Code § 552.117(a)(1). We note section 552.117 applies only to information that a governmental body holds in an employment context. The submitted information consists of law enforcement records and, thus, we find the department does not maintain it in an employment capacity. Accordingly, the department may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision."¹ Gov't Code § 552.101. The department must withhold the submitted dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

The department must withhold the submitted driver's license number under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the submitted dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.
