OR2020-16973

Dear Mr. Kratovil:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 833427.

The Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for grand jury minutes, transcripts, and demographic information related to a specified cause number.<sup>1</sup> You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses article 19.42 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b), information collected by the court, court personnel, or prosecuting attorney during the grand jury selection process about a person who serves as a grand juror, including the person's home address, home telephone number, social security number, driver's license number, and other personal information, is confidential and may not be disclosed by the court, court personnel, or prosecuting attorney.

(b) On a showing of good cause, the court shall permit disclosure of the information sought to a party to the proceeding.

<sup>1</sup> We note you did not comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting a ruling from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301(b). Nonetheless, because section 552.101 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason to overcome the presumption of openness, we will consider its applicability to the submitted information. See id. §§ 552.007, .302, .352.

Crim. Proc. Code art. 19.42. Article 19.42 makes confidential certain “personal information” pertaining to individuals who served on grand juries. Upon review, we agree some of the submitted information, which you have marked, is confidential under article 19.42. Therefore, the district attorney’s office must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 19.42 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides “[t]he proceedings of the grand jury shall be secret.” Id. art. 20.02(a). In construing article 20.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the types of “proceedings” Texas courts have generally stated are secret are testimony presented to the grand jury and the deliberations of the grand jury. See In re Reed, 227 S.W.3d 273, 276 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2007, orig. proceeding). You state the information you have marked consists of final votes of grand jurors as well as the identities of the grand jurors who moved and seconded motions. You state this information reflects the proceedings and results of the grand jury’s deliberations. Based on your representations, we find the information you have marked is confidential under article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the district attorney’s office must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that ground. See Open Records Decision No. 513 at 4 (1988) (information must be withheld if its release would reveal grand jury’s deliberations).

In summary, the district attorney’s office must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 19.42 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The district attorney’s office must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with article 20.02(a) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The district attorney’s office must release the remaining information.
