

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

August 13, 2020

Mr. Thomas Royce Hansen
Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
200 Texas Street, Third Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102-6311

OR2020-20281

Dear Mr. Hansen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 839665 (PIR No. W101558).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to two specified incidents involving two named individuals. You state you will release some of the requested information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal prosecution. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code is applicable to the submitted information.

However, we note, and you acknowledge, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, which you state has been released, the city may generally withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Additionally, however, as a representative of the Texas Military Department, we understand the requestor is also a representative of the adjutant general of the Texas military forces and has a right of access to some of the information at issue. Section 411.121(b)(1) of the Government Code provides, “[t]he adjutant general is entitled to obtain from the [Texas Department of Public Safety (“DPS”)] criminal history record information [“CHRI”] maintained by [DPS] that relates to a person who is: (1) a member of the Texas military forces[.]” Gov't Code § 411.121(b)(1). See also id. § 437.001(2) (“[a]djutant general’ means the military commander of the Texas military forces.”), (13) (“‘Texas Military Department’ means the state agency charged with administrative activities in support of the Texas military forces.”), (14) (“‘Texas military forces’ means the Texas National Guard, the Texas State Guard, and any other military force organized under state law.”), (15) (“‘Texas National Guard’ means the Texas Army National Guard and the Texas Air National Guard.”). In addition, section 411.087(a)(2) of the Government Code reads as follows:

(a) A person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter or Subchapter E-1 to obtain from [DPS] criminal history record information maintained by [DPS] that relates to another person is authorized to:

(2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state criminal history record information maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). CHRI is defined as “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” See id. § 411.082(2). The requestor states he is seeking information about a member of the Texas Military Department. Thus, the requestor is authorized to obtain the submitted CHRI pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.121(b)(1) of the Government Code. See id. § 411.087(a)(2), .121(b)(1). A specific statutory right of access overcomes the general exceptions in the Act, such as section 552.108. See Open Records Decision Nos. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act). Consequently, the city must release the submitted CHRI pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.121(b)(1) of the Government Code.

To conclude, the city must release the submitted CHRI pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.121(b)(1) of the Government Code. With the exception of basic information, which the department must also release, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
