Re: Request for probable cause affidavits and narratives related to a specified arrest
(Ref. No. R001621-071620)

Dear Ms. Garcia:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 846503.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

<sup>1</sup> Although you raise section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code in your brief, based on your arguments, we understand you to raise section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

<sup>2</sup> We note basic information includes an arrestee's social security number. Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a government body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. Gov't Code § 552.147(b).
