Ms. Deanne Rienstra
Special Counsel
Texas Lottery Commission
P.O. Box 16630

OR2020-24603

Dear Ms. Rienstra:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 846500 (TLC File No. R026636-070520).

The Texas Lottery Commission (the "commission") received a request for a list of winners in a specified area during a stated date range. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, the commission must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Id.

<sup>1</sup> The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

<sup>2</sup> As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure of this information.

§ 552.101. This exception encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 466.411 of the Government Code. Section 466.411 provides:

(a) Subject to Subsection (b), a natural person who is a prize winner of a lottery prize in an amount equal to $1 million or more, or who is an owner of a beneficial interest in a legal entity that is a prize winner of a lottery prize in an amount equal to $ 1 million or more, may on the date the winner claims the prize choose to remain anonymous and prohibit all personally identifiable information from being released to the public.

(b) The commission may release or disclose the personally identifiable information of a natural person who is a lottery prize winner if the person chooses to have the prize paid in periodic installments. The commission may only disclose the information on or after the 30th day after the date the person claims the lottery prize if the person chooses to remain anonymous under Subsection (a).

(c) For purposes of this section, the amount of a lottery prize is the total amount of prize money paid to a prize winner for a single lottery prize claim, whether paid in one payment or in periodic installments, before deducting any federal tax withholdings or other deductions required by law.

(d) This section does not prohibit release of a natural person prize winner's city or county of residence or prevent the commission from releasing the person's personally identifiable information to the Health and Human Services Commission or as necessary to comply with Section 466.407 or 466.4075.

Id. § 466.411. The commission asserts some of the remaining information identifies a natural person who won a prize of over $1 million, chose to have the prize paid in a lump sum payment, and elected to remain anonymous. There is no indication the requestor has a right of access to the information under subsection 466.411(d) of the Government Code. See id. § 466.411(d). Section 401.324(c) of title 16 of the Texas Administrative Code defines "personally identifiable information" as information that alone or in conjunction with other information identifies an individual, including an individual's name, social security number, date of birth, or government-issued identification number such as a driver's license or passport, but does not include the name of the prize winner's city or county of residence. See 16 T.A.C. § 401.324(c). Based on the commission's representations and our review, we conclude the information at issue is confidential under section 466.411 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the commission must withhold the information it marked, and the additional information we marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

In summary, the commission must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The commission must withhold the information it marked, and the additional information we marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 466.411 of the Government Code. The commission must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
