

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

October 30, 2020

Ms. Tiffany Bangs
Assistant County Attorney
County of Harris
1019 Congress, 15th Floor
Houston, Texas 77002

OR2020-27365

Dear Ms. Bangs:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 852167 (C.A. File No. 20PIA0563).

The Harris County Institute of Forensic Sciences (the "institute") received a request for a specified autopsy report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we must address the institute's obligations under section 552.301 of the Government Code, which prescribes the procedures a governmental body must follow in asking this office to decide whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301. Pursuant to section 552.301(b), a governmental body must ask for a decision from this office and state the exceptions that apply within ten business days of receiving the written request. See id. § 552.301(b). The institute received the request for information on August 14, 2020. You do not inform us the institute was closed for any business days between August 14, 2020, and August 28, 2020. Accordingly, you were required to provide the information required by section 552.301(b) by August 28, 2020. However, the envelope in which the institute provided the information required by section 552.301(b) was postmarked August 29, 2020. See id. § 552.308(a)(1) (describing rules for calculating submission dates of documents sent via first class United States mail, common or contract carrier, or interagency mail). Accordingly, we conclude the institute failed to comply with the procedural requirements mandated by section 552.301 of the Government Code.

Pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code, a governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption that the requested information is public and must be released unless there is a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ). The need of a governmental body, other than the governmental body that failed to timely seek an open records decision, to withhold information under section 552.108 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason sufficient to overcome the presumption of openness. See Open Records Decision No. 586 (1991). Because you inform us, and provide documentation showing, the Houston Police Department (the “department”) objects to the release of the information at issue, we will consider whether the institute may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108 of the Government Code on behalf of the department.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime ... if ... it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). By its terms, section 552.108 of the Government Code applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the underlying incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 372 (1983). Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information related to a concluded criminal case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information is related to a criminal case that has reached a conclusion other than a conviction or a deferred adjudication and a representation from a law enforcement entity that it wishes to have the information withheld.

You seek to withhold the submitted information on behalf of the department. You have submitted supporting documentation from the department stating it objects to the release of the information as it relates to a concluded criminal investigation that did not result in a conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on this representation and our review, we conclude the institute may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.
