Dear Ms. Downey:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 853157 (PIR# R005329).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for communications with representatives of two named companies during a specified time period. The OAG states it will release some of the requested information with redactions allowed by law. The OAG claims some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information other statutes make confidential. The OAG raises section 15.10(i)(1) of the Business and Commerce Code, which reads as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section or ordered by a court for good cause shown, no documentary material, answers to interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony, or copies or contents thereof, shall be available for examination or used by any person without the consent of the person who produced the material, answers, or testimony and, in the case of any product of discovery, of the person from whom the discovery was obtained.

<sup>1</sup> We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Bus. & Com. Code § 15.10(i)(1). The OAG explains section 15.10(b) authorizes the OAG to issue a Civil Investigative Demand (“CID”) when the OAG has reason to believe any person may be in possession, custody, or control of any documentary material or may have information relevant to a civil antitrust investigation. Id. § 15.10(b). The OAG asserts the information at issue consists of information provided to the OAG in response to a CID issued by the OAG’s Antitrust Division. The OAG represents none of the permitted disclosures in section 15.10(i) apply in this instance. After review of the information at issue and consideration of the OAG’s arguments, we agree the OAG must withhold the information it marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 15.10(i)(1) of the Business and Commerce Code. The OAG must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Matthew Taylor
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
