Dear Ms. Hale:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 854512.

The Flower Mound Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a named individual. The department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

The requestor is a contractor working with the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency ("DCSA"). Executive Order Number 13869 transfers the responsibility of background investigations from the Office of Personnel Management to the Department of Defense ("DoD"). Executive Order No. 13869. The DCSA is a component of the DoD and is the primary federal entity responsible for conducting background investigation for the federal government. Exec. Order No. 13869, § 2(c)(i), (iii). As a component of a covered agency, the DCSA has a right of access to the criminal history record information ("CHRI") of state and local criminal justice agencies when it receives the consent of the individual being investigated for release of such information. See 5 U.S.C. § 9101(b)(1), (c); id. § 9101(a)(6)(A) (defining "covered agency" to include DoD). CHRI is defined as "information collected by criminal justice agencies on individuals consisting of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, indictments, informations, or other formal criminal charges, and any disposition arising therefrom, sentencing, correction supervision and release[,] but does not include "identification information such as fingerprint records to the extent that such information does not indicate involvement in the criminal justice system." Id. § 9101(a)(2).

The requestor has submitted written consent from the individual under investigation for the release of that individual's CHRI. Furthermore, federal law provides the DCSA's right of access to CHRI preempts state confidentiality provisions, including sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code. Id. § 9101(b)(4) (section 9101 "shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of law of any State"). Accordingly, the department must release the submitted information to the requestor.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
