

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

December 2, 2020

Mr. William Overton
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004
Huntsville, Texas 77342-4004

OR2020-29964

Dear Mr. Overton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 856140 (OGC# MW0022).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for certain information pertaining to a named former employee. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.132, and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134(a) of the Government Code relates to inmates of the department and provides the following:

Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). Section 552.134 is explicitly made subject to section 552.029, which provides, in relevant part, the following:

Notwithstanding Section . . . 552.134, the following information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the [department] is subject to required disclosure under Section 552.021:

(8) basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving the inmate.

Id. § 552.029(8). Upon review, we agree the information at issue pertains to an inmate confined in a facility operated by the department and subject to section 552.134. However, we note some of the information at issue consists of a use of force report pertaining to a use of force incident involving an inmate. Basic information regarding a use of force incident is subject to required disclosure under section 552.029(8) of the Government Code. For purposes of section 552.029(8), basic information includes the time and place of the incident, the names of inmates and department employees who were directly involved, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained by anyone involved, and information regarding any criminal charges or disciplinary actions that were filed as a result of the incident. Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, the department must withhold the information it marked under section 552.134 of the Government Code.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by the Medical Practice Act (“MPA”), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code, which governs release of medical records. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides, in relevant part:

- (a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient’s behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002(a)-(c). Information subject to the MPA includes both medical records and information obtained from those medical records. See id. §§ 159.002, .004. This office has concluded the protection afforded by section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). We have further found when a file is created as a result of a hospital stay, all the documents in the file referring to diagnosis and treatment constitute physician-patient communications or “[r]ecords of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that are created or maintained by a physician.” Open Records Decision No. 546 (1990).

Upon review, we find the department has not demonstrated any portion of the remaining information consists of medical records for purposes of the MPA, and the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.101 on that basis.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 437.232 of the Government Code, which provides as follows:

(a) In this section, “military personnel information” means a service member’s name, home address, rank, official title, pay rate or grade, state active duty orders, deployment locations, military duty addresses, awards and decorations, length of military service, and medical records.

(b) A service member’s military personnel information is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552.

Id. § 437.232. Section 437.232 is contained in subchapter E of chapter 437 of the Government Code. Chapter 437 is titled “Texas Military” and subchapter E is titled “Texas Military Forces.” Upon review, we find section 437.232 only applies to military personnel records maintained by the Texas Military Forces. See id. § 437.001(14) (providing that “Texas military forces” for purposes of chapter 437 mean the Texas National Guard, the Texas State Guard, and any other military forces under state law). We note the information you seek to withhold is maintained in documents maintained by the department. Thus, section 437.232 is not applicable to the information at issue, and the department may not withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 437.232 of the Government Code.

Section 552.117(a)(3) of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure the home address and telephone number, social security number, emergency contact information, and family member information of current or former employees of the department or any division of the department, regardless of whether the current or former employee complies with section 552.1175 of the Government Code.² Id. § 552.117(a)(3). We note section 552.117(a)(3) protects an employee’s personal cellular telephone provided the cellular telephone service is not paid by a governmental body. See Open Records Decision No. 506 at 5-6 (1988) (statutory predecessor to section 552.117 not applicable to numbers for cellular mobile phones installed in county officials' and employees' private vehicles and intended for official business). Upon review, we find the information we marked is confidential pursuant to section 552.117(a)(3). Accordingly, the department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.117(a)(3) of the Government Code, but may only withhold the marked cellular telephone number if the cellular telephone service is not paid by a governmental body. If the cellular telephone service is paid for by a governmental body, the number may not be withheld under section 552.117(a)(3) of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130. Accordingly, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

Section 552.132(b) of the Government Code provides the following:

The following information held by the crime victim's compensation division of the attorney general's office is confidential:

- (1) the name, social security number, address, or telephone number of a crime victim or claimant; or
- (2) any other information the disclosure of which would identify or tend to identify the crime victim or claimant.

Id. § 552.132(b). The information at issue is held by the department, not the crime victim's compensation division of the attorney general's office. Therefore, section 552.132(b) is not applicable to this information. Thus, the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.132(b) of the Government Code.

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body" unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See id. § 552.137(a)-(c). The e-mail address at issue is not excluded by subsection (c). Therefore, the department must withhold the personal e-mail address we marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure.

In summary, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the department must withhold the information it marked under section 552.134 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.117(a)(3) of the Government Code, but may only withhold the marked cellular telephone number if the cellular telephone service is not paid by a governmental body. The department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the personal e-mail address we marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure. The department must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
