Ms. Cynthia Tynan
Assistant General Counsel and Public Information Coordinator
The University of Texas System
210 West Seventh Street
Austin, Texas 78701-2903

OR2022-00308

Dear Ms. Tynan:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 923639 (OGC# 203319).

The University of Texas at San Antonio (the "university") received a request for reports of specified types of investigations involving faculty in the university's biology department during a certain date range. You state the university will release some information to the requestor. You also state the university has redacted information pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), section 1232g of title 20 of the United States Code.¹ You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 51.971 of the Education Code. Section 51.971 of the Education Code, provides, in relevant part:

(a) In this section:

(1) “Compliance program” means a process to assess and ensure compliance by the officers and employees of an institution of higher education with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and policies, including matters of:

(A) ethics and standards of conduct;

(B) financial reporting;

(C) internal accounting controls; or

(D) auditing.

(2) “Institution of higher education” has the meaning assigned by Section 61.003.

...

(c) The following are confidential:

(1) information that directly or indirectly reveals the identity of an individual who made a report to the compliance program office of an institution of higher education, sought guidance from the office, or participated in an investigation conducted under the compliance program; and

(2) information that directly or indirectly reveals the identity of an individual as a person who is alleged to have or may have planned, initiated, or participated in activities that are the subject of a report made to the compliance program office of an institution of higher education if, after completing an investigation, the office determines the report to be unsubstantiated or without merit.

(d) Subsection (c) does not apply to information related to an individual who consents to disclosure of the information.

Educ. Code § 51.971(a), (c)-(d). You inform us the university is an institution of higher education for purposes of section 61.003 of the Education Code. See id. § 51.971(a)(2). You state the submitted information pertains to closed investigations in which the allegations were substantiated in part and unsubstantiated in part. You state the release of the information you marked would directly or indirectly reveal the identities of those individuals alleged to have planned, initiated, or participated in the events at issue regarding the unsubstantiated allegations. Upon review, we find you demonstrated release of the information at issue would directly or indirectly reveal the identities of those individuals alleged to have planned, initiated, or participated in the events at issue regarding the unsubstantiated allegations. See id. § 51.971(c). Accordingly, the university must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 51.971(c)(2) of the Education Code. The university must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Deborah Southerland
Assistant Attorney General
