Dear Mr. Hoffer:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 932599.

IDEA Public Schools ("IDEA"), which you represent, received a request for records pertaining to a specified meeting. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 through 552.160 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the exceptions you claim.

We must address IDEA's obligations under the Act. Section 552.301 of the Government Code prescribes the procedures a governmental body must follow in asking this office to decide whether requested information is excepted from disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301. Pursuant to section 552.301(e), a governmental body is required to submit to this office within fifteen business days of receiving an open records request (1) written <sup>1</sup> Although you also raise section 552.022 of the Government Code, we note section 552.022 is not an exception to disclosure. Rather, section 552.022 enumerates categories of information that are not excepted from disclosure unless they are made confidential under the Act or other law. See Gov't Code § 552.022. In addition, although you also raise section 552.026 of the Government Code, we note section 552.026 is not an exception to disclosure under the Act. Rather, section 552.026 provides the Act does not require the release of information contained in education records except in conformity with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. See id. § 552.026. Further, although you also raise section 552.027 of the Government Code, we note section 552.027 is not an exception to disclosure. See id. § 552.027. Finally, although you also raise section 552.305 of the Government Code, we note section 552.305 is not an exception to disclosure under the Act. Rather, section 552.305 provides the procedural requirements for notifying third parties that their interests may be affected by a request for information. See id. § 552.305.

comments stating the reasons why the claimed exceptions apply that would allow the information to be withheld, (2) a copy of the written request for information, (3) a signed statement or sufficient evidence showing the date the governmental body received the written request, and (4) a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples, labeled to indicate which exceptions apply to which parts of the documents. See id. § 552.301(e). In this instance, you state, and provide documentation showing, IDEA received the instant request for information on December 6, 2021. However, as of the date of this letter, you have not submitted for our review a copy of the written comments explaining why the stated exceptions apply or a copy or representative sample of the information requested. Consequently, we conclude IDEA failed to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301(e) of the Government Code.

Pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code, a governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption that the requested information is public and must be released unless there is a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ). Although IDEA raises exceptions to disclosure, because you have not submitted the requested information for our review, we have no basis for finding any of the information excepted from disclosure. Thus, we have no choice but to order the requested information released pursuant to section 552.302. If you believe the information may not lawfully be released, you must challenge this ruling in court pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
