Dear Mr. Brooke:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 935942.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted representative sample of information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue.¹ Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2).² However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

(w/o enclosures)

¹ We assume the “representative sample” of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

² As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address the remaining arguments against disclosure of the submitted information.
