Re: Request for all incidents involving a named individual, including information related to a specified incident (OGC# 203962)

Dear Ms. Tynan:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 935873.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim portions of the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108(a)(2). You must release the remaining information to this requestor.¹

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

c: Requestor

¹ We note the information being released in this instance includes information that is confidential with respect to the general public. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates or person's agent on ground that information is considered confidential by privacy principles); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individuals request information concerning themselves). Therefore, if you receive another request for this information from a different requestor, you must again seek a ruling from this office.
