

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

March 16, 2022

Mr. Craig Stoddart
Assistant Criminal District Attorney
Rockwall County
1111 Yellowjacket Lane, Suite 201
Rockwall, Texas 75087

OR2022-07761

Dear Mr. Stoddart:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 936283.

The Rockwall County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for specified contracts and addenda. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.1101 of the Government Code. Additionally, you state release of the submitted information may implicate the proprietary interests of Securus Technologies, LLC ("Securus"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified Securus of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have considered the exception you raise and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note an interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) of the Government Code to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have not received comments from Securus explaining why the information at issue should not be released. Thus, we have no basis to conclude Securus has a protected proprietary interest in the submitted information. See, e.g., id. § 552.110 (requiring the provision of specific factual evidence demonstrating the applicability of the exception). Therefore, the sheriff's office may not withhold the submitted information on the basis of any proprietary interest Securus may have in the information.

You claim the submitted information is subject to section 552.1101 of the Government Code. However, section 552.1101 protects only the interests of a vendor, contractor, potential vendor, or potential contractor that has provided information to a governmental body, not those of the governmental body itself. See id. § 552.1101(c). Therefore, we do not consider your argument under section 552.1101 of the Government Code.

We note the submitted information at issue may be protected by copyright. A custodian of public records must comply with the copyright law and is not required to furnish copies of records that are copyrighted. Open Records Decision No. 180 at 3 (1977). A governmental body must allow inspection of copyrighted materials unless an exception applies to the information. Id.; see Open Records Decision No. 109 (1975). If a member of the public wishes to make copies of copyrighted materials, the person must do so unassisted by the governmental body. In making copies, the member of the public assumes the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit. As no further exceptions to disclosure have been raised, the sheriff's office must release the submitted information; however, any information subject to copyright may only be released in accordance with copyright law.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/members-public/what-expect-after-ruling-issued> or call the OAG's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Public Information Act may be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the OAG, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Tim Neal
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
