OR2022-07880

Dear Mr. Jimison:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 936431 (File# JDe18).

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified arrest. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides:

[T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we agree the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse conducted under chapter 261 of the Family Code, so as to fall within the scope of section 261.201(a). See id. §§ 261.001 (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code), 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). You do not indicate the department has adopted a rule that would permit the release of the submitted information. Accordingly, we conclude the submitted information is generally confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute). However, section 261.201(a) provides information encompassed by subsection (a) may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law.” Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Chapter 411 of the Government Code constitutes “applicable state law,” in this instance.

We note the requestor is a representative of the Enforcement Division of the Texas Board of Nursing (the “board”) and, thus, may have a right of access to some of the information at issue. Section 411.125 of the Government Code provides:

The [board] is entitled to obtain from the [Department of Public Safety (“DPS”)] criminal history record information [(“CHRI”)] maintained by the [DPS] that relates to a person who:

- (1) is an applicant for or a holder of a license by the board;
- (2) has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board; or
- (3) is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the person.

See Gov’t Code § 411.125. In addition, section 411.087(a) of the Government Code provides, in pertinent part:

[A] person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter or Subchapter E-1 to obtain from the [DPS CHRI] maintained by the [DPS] that relates to another person is authorized to:

- (2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state [CHRI] maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). CHRI is defined as “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” See id. § 411.082(2). In this instance, the submitted information contains CHRI pertaining to the individual named in the request, and the requestor may have a right of access to it under sections 411.087 and 411.125. However, the requestor does not indicate, and we are not otherwise able to determine, whether release of the CHRI is consistent with the Family

Code or if the arrestee named in the request is an applicant for or a holder of a license from the board, has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board, or is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the arrestee. Accordingly, we must rule in the alternative. If the department determines release of the CHRI is consistent with the Family Code and the arrestee named in the request is an individual described by section 411.125 of the Government Code, then the requestor is authorized to obtain the named individual's CHRI contained in the submitted information and the department must release the CHRI to this requestor. In that instance, the remaining information is confidential and the department must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.¹ However, if the department determines release is not consistent with the purposes of the Family Code or if the named individual is not an individual described by section 411.125 of the Government Code, then the requestor does not have a right of access to the named individual's CHRI and the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
