Re: Request for information pertaining to the requestor

Dear Mr. Boyd:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 949889.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

<sup>1</sup> As our ruling is dispositive, we do not address your other arguments to withhold the submitted information, except to note basic information may not be withheld from public disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 597 at 2-3 (1991). In addition, because the requestor has a special right of access to some of the information being released, you must again seek a decision from this office if you receive a request for the same information from another requestor.
