Dear Ms. Cotton:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 950875.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> We note the requestor has a right of access to some of the basic information being released. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates or person's agent on ground that information is considered confidential by privacy principles); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individuals request information concerning themselves). Thus, if you receive another request for the same information from a different requestor, you must again seek a decision from this office. Additionally, as our ruling is dispositive, we need not address the applicability of section 1701.661(a) of the Occupations Code to the submitted body worn camera video recordings. See generally Occ.
