Dear Ms. Morrison:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 951432.

Williamson County (the "county") received a request for the current voter registration list and information pertaining to a specified election. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The court of appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. See Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). Accordingly, the county must generally withhold the public citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

However, we note the requestor seeks, in part, the current voter registration list. Pursuant to subchapter A of chapter 18 of the Election Code, the registrar in each county must prepare for each precinct a certified list of registered voters in the precinct. See Elec. Code §§ 18.001-.004 (discussing original, supplemental, registration correction, and revised original lists of registered voters). Each original and supplemental list of registered voters must contain the voter's name, date of birth, and registration number, the voter's residence address, except as provided by subsections (b) and (c) or section 18.0051, and the notation required by section 15.111 of the Election Code. See id. § 18.005(a)(1)-(2), (4); see also id. §§ 18.0051 (discussing substitute addresses in list of registered voters), 15.111(a) (explaining registrar shall enter certain notation on registered voter's list beside voter's name on suspense list). Section 18.008 of the Election Code provides, in part, as follows:

(a) The registrar shall furnish a copy of any list prepared under . . . subchapter [A of chapter 18] to any person requesting it. The copy shall be furnished without the names of voters whose names appear on a list with the notation "S", or a similar notation, if requested in that form.

Id. § 18.008(a). We note information that is specifically made public by statute may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on the basis of common law privacy. See Collins v. Tex Mall, L.P., 297 S.W.3d 409, 415 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2009, no pet.) (statutory provision controls and preempts common law only when statute directly conflicts with common law principle); see also Center Point Energy Houston Elec. LLC v. Harris County Toll Rd. Auth., 436 F.3d 541, 544 (5th Cir. 2006) (common law controls only where there is no conflicting or controlling statutory law). Accordingly, the submitted voter registration list is subject to section 18.008 and the county may not withhold the dates of birth in the voter registration lists under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. Therefore, with the exception of the dates of birth in the submitted voter registration list, which are subject to section 18.008 of the Elections Code, the county may withhold the submitted public citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The county must release the remaining information.
