

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

June 23, 2022

Mr. Kieran Hillis
Public Information Coordinator and Assistant General Counsel
Office of the Governor
P.O. Box 12428
Austin, Texas 78711

OR2022-18031

Dear Mr. Hillis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 955424 (OOG ID# 171-22).

The Office of the Governor (the "governor's office") received a request for certain information pertaining to the extension of the COVID-19 emergency disaster declaration by the governor's office. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides as follows:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

¹ We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). A governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show the section 552.103(a) exception is applicable in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, orig. proceeding); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). A governmental body must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a).

You state several lawsuits were pending against the governor's office when it received the instant request for information.² You state the submitted information is related to the pending lawsuits because it pertains to the claims in the lawsuits. Based on your representations and our review, we find litigation was pending when the governor's office received this request for information, and the submitted information is related to the pending litigation for the purposes of section 552.103. Therefore, the governor's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.103(a) of the Government Code.³

We note once information has been obtained by all parties to the litigation through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) interest exists with respect to that information. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982), 320 (1982). Thus, information that has either been obtained from or provided to the opposing party in the pending litigation is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.103(a), and it must be disclosed. Further, the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation has been concluded. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open->

² You state the pending lawsuits are: Galovelho, LLC v. Abbott, Case No. 219-02595-2020, in the 219th Judicial District Court of Collin County, Texas; Stand for Something Group Live, LLC v. Abbott, Cause No. D-1-GN-20-004403, in the 200th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas; and City of San Antonio v. Abbott, Cause No. 2021CI16133, in the 45th Judicial District Court of Bexar County, Texas.

³ As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure.
