Dear Ms. Adams:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 959528 (PD Reference R133149).

The Arlington Police Department (the "department") received a request for specified body worn camera footage and information pertaining to a certain officer. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. The submitted information consists of a police officer's body worn camera recording. Body worn cameras are subject to chapter 1701 of the Occupations Code. Section 1701.661(a) of the Occupations Code states the information a requestor must provide when seeking a body worn camera recording. See Occ. Code § 1701.661(a). We note the requestor provides the requisite information for the body worn camera recordings at issue. We note, however, section 1701.661(c) and section 1701.661(d) provide:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), information recorded by a body worn camera and held by a law enforcement agency under this subchapter is not subject to the requirements of Section 552.021, Government Code.

(d) Information that is or could be used as evidence in a criminal prosecution is subject to the requirement of Section 552.021, Government Code.

Id. § 1701.661(c)-(d). You state the submitted information relates to an incident that did not result in an investigation or criminal charges. Further, you state the body worn camera recording will not be used as evidence in a criminal prosecution. Based upon these representations and our review, we agree the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1701.661(c) of the Occupations Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
